Archaeology

A carved stone found at Wharram Percy.

6 bones from a woman's back found at Wharram Percy.

Archaeology

“About 15% of the bodies discovered at Wharram Percy belonged to children under the age of 1.”

From a book called Deserted Medieval Villages.

- The edges of the hole are pushed inwards
- What happened to the bone that was covering the hole?
- The hole is not very neat

The bone around the hole shows signs of HEALING!!! How could that have happened?
